2026 THEME:

1 CORINTHIANS 15:58

“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord,” forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.”

LUKE 19:13

“And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.”

Good morning. 'No matter how many mistakes or how slow you progress you are still way ahead of everyone who isn't trying. Phil. 3:13 says, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do, forgetting those things behind and straining toward what's ahead. Listen-When you stop chasing the wrong things, you give the right things time to catch up. Remember; God is working in your waiting. Be blessed.

On this blessed Resurrection Sunday, we rejoice in the greatest victory ever won, Jesus Christ our Savior, conquered death, hell and the grave – not for Himself, but for us. His resurrection is our assurance that no situation is too dark, no burden too heavy, and no season too broken for God to restore. Because He lives, we have hope for tomorrow. Because He lives, we can face today with courage. Because He lives, we walk in power, purpose and promise. Let this day remind you that every closed tomb in your life has the potential to become and open testimony. The same power that raised Jesus from the dead is still working, still moving, still lifting, still saving and still renewing hearts. Walk in that victory. Stand in that joy. Live in that resurrection power. May the peace of Christ fill your spirit, the love of Christ surround your home, and the light of Christ shine through everything you do. 1 Corinthians 15:57 “But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

Sister Jeanette Holmes is mourning the loss of her beloved sister, Corene Cooper. Sister Cooper was the cherished aunt of Sister Peggy Raines, Sister Michelle Rowe-Harrison and Sister Anquetta Rowe-Johnson.

GOD'S MAILBOX was used by 38 prayer warriors last week.

LUKE 24:1-12

¹ Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

² And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

³ And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

⁴ And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

⁵ And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

⁶ He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

⁷ Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

⁸ And they remembered his words,

⁹ And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

¹⁰ It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

¹¹ And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

¹² Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.”
